• Dining In Dublin, the premier restaurant menu guide, is currently in its eighth year of publication. With the introduction of the bar & nightlife, shopping and sightseeing sections, Dining In Dublin will be bigger and better than ever!

• Every 6 months 15,000 copies of Dining In Dublin are distributed free of charge to hotel bedrooms and lobbies.

This will achieve a potential readership of 1.8 million, via hotel distribution alone. (This estimate is based on average hotel occupancy figures supplied by the annual Horwath Bastow Charleton Hotel Industry Survey). The magazine also retails at newsagents and tourist information centres.

• Following endorsements from Dublin Tourism and many participating restaurateurs and hoteliers Dining In Dublin has firmly established its credibility and effectiveness. In addition to its healthy local appeal Dining In Dublin is directed at the tourist and executive traveller market, and is therefore the ideal platform to reach both leisure and corporate audiences on a national and international level. There's no better or more cost efficient way to advertise your business!
